

No. 2093

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China and has the honor to inform you that Focus Air has qualified under the laws of the United States and should be added to the list of airlines authorized to operate charters to China.

The Embassy refers to the Agreement Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the People's Republic of China Relating to Civil Air Transport, signed at Washington September 17, 1980, as amended ("the Agreement"). Pursuant to Annex II, Paragraph (1) (g) of the Agreement, which provides that "Each Party may provide to the other by diplomatic note a list of airlines qualified under the laws of the first Party to provide charter transportation," the Government of the United States of America informs the Government of the People's Republic of China that Focus Air has so qualified under the laws of the United States and should be added to the list of airlines authorized to operate charters.

DIPLOMATIC NOTE

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the ministry of Foreign Affairs the assurances of its highest consideration.

Embassy of the United States of America,
Beijing, December 15, 006.
